Description

A Late 19th Century Aesthetic Movement Walnut Octagonal Table, 75cm wide. An elegant late 19th century, circa 1890, English Aesthetic Movement octagonal hall or centre table in its original and untouched condition, featuring original castors and pierced gallery to the lower tier. A fine example of the traditional Aesthetic Movement values and design details, in the manner of Shoolbred and EW Godwin. A handsome and versatile antique table of both practical use and considerable decorative appeal. An interior design piece that can compliment a classic or contemporary space. Dimensions Height 71.5cm Width and depth 74.5cm Presented in very good original condition, the top shows some domestic minimal wear and other than a simple wax, we've done nothing to it, 1 side edge of the pierced lower gallery has a small split but otherwise good all round. Please request more photos and any questions invited. Free collection from Lewes, East Sussex. U.K. delivery available. We operate a weekly delivery service into London and surrounding areas of the M25 for only £40, plus any related congestion charges.
