Description

A Hand Carved Chippendale Hall Chair Apprentice Piece. This is a very unusual piece, the chair is smaller than most, it is probably a ladies chair, the back and the seat front have been carved with Dragons, Faces and Vines, this is quite obviously a very special piece whose history we do not know. The chair is in good sound condition, it is 34.5" high at the back, the seat is 15" high and it is 20" wide across the front. To get an accurate delivery quote please send us your location. DW36
