Description

Victorian silver & glass hip flask with removable cup hallmarked Sheffield 1891 James Dixon & Sons A very handsome antique silver and glass hip flask. The silver lid has a bayonet fitting and is hinged with a silver collar. Here clear hallmarks are visible for the Sheffield 1891 James Dixon & Sons. The body of the flask is a good, heavy glass and the silver lower half of the flask pulls away to be used as a drinking cup. Full hallmarks are also clearly visible on the front of the cup. A lovely gift idea in good antique condition with some marks to the glass & some light scratches & a small ding to bottom side edge of the cup. Measurements: Height: 17.5 cm Width: 9 cm Depth: 3.5 cm Weight: 417 grams Weights & measurements are approximate. Stock Code: 42747
