Description

A stunning, fine and impressive antique 1.60 carat Basaltic sapphire, 18 carat yellow gold and platinum set twist ring; part of our collection of sapphire engagement rings. This stunning, fine and impressive antique sapphire ring has been crafted in 18ct yellow gold with a platinum setting. The antique twist ring displays two feature round faceted cut blue Basaltic sapphires, each eight-claw set diagonally on a twist. The curved ring shoulders integrate into the twist design and blend seamlessly with the plain ring shank. This Edwardian sapphire ring is hallmarked to the interior with the 18ct gold mark (18CT), and the piece has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as 18 carat gold and platinum. This antique twist ring is supplied with an IDGL gemstone grading report grading card*. This antique 18k gold sapphire twist ring is well suited to both everyday elegance and more formal occasions. The warm tone of the gold complements the rich blue of the sapphire, allowing the piece to pair beautifully with tailored daywear as well as evening attire. Its twist design introduces a sense of movement and individuality, ...
