Description

An antique Hamadan runner woven in North-West of Persia, woven around circa 1900, rich colours using a reddish brown border and a lovely pale blue main background. Lovely natural dyes of pinks, greens and pale blues have been used for the flowing floral design running down the main centre of this small size runner. Condition is very nice, a fine weave and an excellent wool pile all over. A rare antique runner in a hard to find small size. We offer the professional service of viewing any of our carpets & rugs in-situ by appointment or you are very welcome to visit our barn showroom in Crondall, Surrey. Request a home visit to see this antique runner at home at a convenient time for you. Or book in a visit to our barn showroom in Surrey if preferred, we are open Monday to Saturday by appointment.
