Description

Huge William Barr. Scottish oil painting. (1867-1933) A superb painting by one of Scotland's renowned 19th-century artists, depicting a Scottish river with cattle and hay stacks, etc in the adjacent fields. William Barr moved to California in his later years (San Francisco), where he continued painting and exhibiting works until he passed away in 1933. The painting is protected under glass, ready to hang, held in a heavy exhibition frame. Excellent condition. Size 80cms x 106cms framed
