Description

A fine example of a coat of arms coach panel. The piece is typical of the type, painted on a pine panel in oil paint highlighted with gilding. The arms depicted are unidentified but does have a decorative elaborate design surmounted with a rampant black lion grasping a golden arrow. The piece is in excellent untouched condition. The panel has been later framed in a gilt mahogany frame which works very well, it is in very good condition with a great worn look. The whole is an interesting decorative piece in very good condition. C.1820. Overall sizes in inches including frame: 9 ¼ by 11 ½
