Description

Edwardian flame mahogany bow front triple wardrobe Item code 1409 A fine quality Edwardian period flame mahogany bow front triple wardrobe of impressive scale and elegant proportions. Constructed in beautifully figured flame mahogany with rich colour and striking grain throughout, this handsome antique wardrobe offers both decorative appeal and excellent practical storage. The shaped cornice features attractive dentil moulding above three bow fronted doors, each centred with a striking oval flame mahogany panel framed by delicate moulded detail. The interior is well arranged with a combination of hanging space, fitted shelves and a bank of drawers, providing versatile storage suitable for modern living. Raised on shaped bracket feet, the wardrobe displays refined Edwardian craftsmanship and a graceful serpentine front which enhances its visual presence in any room. A substantial and highly decorative statement piece, ideal for a bedroom or dressing room setting, combining period charm with everyday functionality. The wardrobe breaks down into four sections for ease of transport (hanging section, drawer section, plinth and cornice). Key features Edwardian period Flame ma...
