Description

An Edwardian brass dressing table mirror dating from the early 20th century, circa 1900–1910. The mirror features a beautifully detailed repoussé brass frame, decorated with fruit and floral motifs including berries, leaves and apples, all set against a finely textured background. The central mirror plate is finished with a bevelled edge, adding depth and a refined finish typical of mirrors from this period. The mirror sits upright due to its brass easel stand, allowing it to sit neatly on a dressing table, washstand, or chest of drawers. H: 37 W: 23 D: 15 cm
