

SA1203109

Pair of Egyptian Revival Art Deco Walnut Mirrors Circa 1920

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1203109*Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

An exceptional and highly decorative pair of Egyptian Revival mirrors dating to the Art Deco period, beautifully crafted in rich, dark walnut. Each mirror features a striking architectural frame adorned with stylized Egyptian motifs, including winged scarabs, papyrus forms, and geometric elements that reflect the fascination with ancient Egypt during the early 20th century. The symmetrical yet distinct compositions give the pair a strong visual presence, making them ideal as statement pieces flanking a fireplace, console, or entryway. The finely carved details—such as the stepped forms, lotus-inspired columns, and sculptural embellishments—demonstrate skilled craftsmanship and a refined sense of design typical of the period. The deep walnut tone enhances the dramatic relief carving, adding warmth and depth while complementing both traditional and modern interiors. Their elongated horizontal format further emphasizes their decorative impact and versatility. Dimensions: 110 cm Length x 60 cm Height

Seller Details

School House Antiques

Hertfordshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07498 776 944

International Tel: +44 7498 776 944