Description

Circa 1870, this superb Victorian pollard oak sideboard is presented in excellent showroom condition. Crafted to a high standard, it features richly figured swirling grain in warm golden-brown tones, enhanced by a deep polished finish. The front is arranged with three panelled doors beneath a row of three slim drawers, all in solid oak with traditional dovetail construction and smooth action. Decorated with carved uprights featuring floral roundels and foliate motifs. Raised on concealed casters for ease of movement, the piece has been carefully polished throughout.
