Good Pair of Qing Period Chinese Huanghuali Tables

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1203236*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

This is an elegant pair of Chinese low tables in solid Huanghuali wood with a contrasting hardwood central panel dating from around 1900. The tables are in excellent condition with a good colour and very nice antique patina. They are a most tasteful design in the Chinese taste with the tops of square moulded form above a pierced frieze. The solid square legs having a scrolled horseshoe foot. They are in good sound condition with firm joints and of good sturdy construction. These are a very practical size and would be very useful measuring 55 cms square and 47 cms in height. UK delivery can be arranged with our furniture courier and costs £70 plus vat to most destinations.
