Description

Here we have a 1920s cast brass table lamp in the form of a classical column, raised on a stepped square base. The fluted column is topped with a decorative capital featuring stylised floral and foliate motifs, combining classical architectural influence with a subtle Art Deco feel in its clean lines and simplified ornament. The lamp has developed a lovely aged brass patina over time, giving it a warm tone and highlighting the crisp casting throughout the column and base. A timeless design that works well in both traditional and contemporary interiors.
