Description

A decorative 19th century cast brass candlestick, finished in a rich, naturally aged patina. The piece is formed as a classical urn, detailed with cast mask decoration and subtle engraved geometric patterns. It sits on a stepped circular base, with a well-balanced stem rising to a fluted candle holder. The surface shows honest signs of age, with darker tones in the recesses that highlight the detail and give the piece a strong sense of character. A compact but eye-catching decorative item, ideal for use on a mantel, shelf, or tabletop. darker tones in the recesses that really highlight the detail and give the piece a strong sense of character.
