Description

A stunning, fine and impressive 0.58 carat diamond and platinum pendant with an 18ct white gold chain; part of our diverse antique jewellery and estate jewelry collections. This stunning, fine and impressive 1920s pendant has been crafted in platinum. The drop pendant consists of an impressive feature eight-claw set 0.51ct transitional modern brilliant round cut diamond, suspended from an individually six claw set supporting diamond. The tapering, millegrain decorated bale is embellished with three diamonds in a combination of Old European and eight cut diamonds. The 1920s diamond pendant in platinum suspends from an 18ct white gold 18" chain, securing to the reverse with a conventional spring-loaded bolt ring fastening. This diamond drop pendant has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as platinum and 18ct white gold. This impressive antique pendant is supplied with an independent diamond grading report certificate for the principal diamond, in addition to an independent diamond grading report card for the supporting stones.
