Description

A good sized antique Edwardian oak shoe cupboard in oak dating from circa 1905. The slightly over-sailing top above two panelled doors and standing on a plinth base. It has a decorative brass drop handle to the doors which open to reveal three pairs of poles to the interior for storing shoes. In good condition with beautifully figured quarter sawn oak with a warm colour and good patina, it is of a really useful size, being slim enough to fit in a hallway or porch, while tall enough to offer lots of storage. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Good condition. Solid and sturdy with wear and marks commensurate with age. Some wear to the poles to the interior. Beautifully figured quarter sawn oak with a warm patina. Dimensions: Width: 90cm Depth: 29cm Height: 90cm Cupboard Internal: 77cm High x 85cm Wide x 24cm Deep
