Description

This stunning Bohemian Garnet Necklace, dating to the Victorian period circa 1880, features Garnet clovers and petal-shaped pendant drops that graduate towards the centre, set in gold-gilt. The Garnets have a lovely play of colour, deep velvet red with flashes of bright red and fiery orange shining through. Garnet is the birthstone for January and the stone that celebrates the 2nd anniversary of marriage. The necklace secures to the reverse with a twist barrel fastener. STONES Garnet METAL Gold Gilt (Metal) MEASUREMENTS Measures 17.5" in length Centre Star measures 1.5cm x 1.4cm across WEIGHT 16.4 grams CONDITION This beautiful old garnet drop necklace is still in very good shape for its age.
