Description

This exceptional antique Korean cabinet is crafted from beautifully figured burr elm, showcasing a rich, swirling grain that adds depth and character to any interior. Dating from the 19th century, the piece features traditional Korean design elements, including bold geometric panelling and ornate brass hardware. The cabinet is fitted with multiple compartments and drawers, offering both practical storage and visual appeal. Its symmetrical façade is enhanced by hand-forged brass hinges, corner mounts, and distinctive circular lock plates, all of which contrast elegantly with the warm tones of the wood. Raised on shaped legs, this Korean storage chest combines durability with refined craftsmanship. Ideal as a statement piece in a living room, hallway, or bedroom, it brings authenticity, history, and functionality into modern or traditional interiors alike.
