Description

An elegant antique French bedside or occasional table, dating to the 19th century, crafted with refined proportions and classical detailing. The circular marble top sits within a finely moulded wooden surround, showcasing beautifully figured timber with delicate inlaid decoration. The frieze is enriched with decorative ormolu mounts and fitted with a single drawer, retaining its original ring pull and tassel, offering both charm and practicality. Raised on gracefully tapered legs terminating in ormolu sabots, the table features two tiers, providing useful surface and display space while maintaining a light, elegant profile. The lower tier echoes the circular form of the top, enhancing the symmetry and balance of the design. This piece works equally well as a bedside table, lamp table, or decorative side table, making it a versatile addition to both traditional and refined contemporary interiors. Presented in very good antique condition, with a pleasing aged patina throughout. Dimensions: Height: 81 cm Width: 47 cm Depth: 40 cm
