Description

An outstanding Victorian snap-top table, masterfully crafted from solid walnut and presented in superb antique condition. The oval top features beautifully matched quartered walnut veneers, decorated with intricate marquetry and delicate string inlay. Supported by a superbly carved central column flowing into four beautifully shaped carved legs that sweep outward and end in original castors for ease of movement. Practical as well as decorative, the tilt-top mechanism allows the table to be conveniently stored upright, showcasing its exquisite surface even when not in use. With striking grain, superb colouring, and graceful proportions, this table is a perfect fusion of beauty, utility, and heritage — comfortably seating four and making a distinguished addition to any refined dining or living space. When up right the table measures 168cm high 111cm wide and 64cm deep
