Description

A characterful Georgian oak work table, the hinged top opening to a baize-lined interior, above a front arranged as false drawers, all raised on simple square legs. A practical, understated late Georgian domestic piece, ideal for use as a small side table with discreet storage and equally well suited as a bedside table. Good antique condition with plenty of attractive surface wear, a strong patina and some historic repairs. The baize is later and remains in good condition. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1800. H: 69.5 W: 51.5 D: 38 cm
