Description

This is a magnificent coffee pot made in Birmingham in 1814 by top maker Matthew Boulton. It is in very good condition, clear hallmarks under the base with matching hallmarks on the lid. It is really well made as you would expect, nice fluted decoration. It has the clan McFarlane crest and motto. It is 23cms high and weighs 630 grams. A fine piece of Georgian silver by a much sought after maker
