Description

Magnificent mid C19th English ebony and Boulle breakfront side cabinet; attributed to Town & Emanuel in the 'Première Partie' manner; the ebonised breakfront top above a shallow frieze with intricate brass inlay of scrolling arabesques with a brass moulded edge; above the impressive centre door profusely inlaid with a foliate cartouche centred by a 'Bacchic' dancer and phoenix surrounded by swags, husks and floral motifs. Flanked by two glazed doors with scrolling inlay and brass mouldings. The central cupboard with a shelf, and the two end glazed sections containing two shelves with brass strung edges and original velvet linings. Raised on a plinth base with a brass moulding and brass stringing. The central door stamped 'Edwards & Roberts, Wardour Street, London' who would have most certainly been the retailers. All three doors with working locks and keys. Good condition Dimensions (ins) 72 wide x 49 high x 18 deep English circa 1840 Town & Emanuel were the early pioneers of the 19th-century 'Boulle' revival in England; who adapted the finest French designs for the British aristocracy, notably holding a Royal Warrant. They occupied 103 New Bond Street from c1830 u...
