Description

A fine quality George III flame mahogany 8 day longcase clock by John Thwaites of London, numbered 4181, retailed by Septimus Miles of 32 Ludgate Street, London. Circa 1808. The high quality "Gentleman's Library" style case veneered in beautifully figured flame mahogany of excellent colour and patination, constructed on a solid oak carcass. The break arch hood surmounted with the original shaped pediment and cast brass spire finial, below canted stop fluted corners with brass reeding. The convex circular glass bound with a cast brass bezel. The hood sides with circular glass viewing windows. The razor edge moulded long trunk door with choice curled mahogany veneers, flanked by canted corners with brass reeded inlay. The moulded edge raised panel to the base with London style double plinth. The 12" convex circular white enamelled dial signed Miles, 32 Ludgate Street, London to the centre. A beautifully executed dial with very fine calligraphy work, in excellent original condition. The fully restored high quality movement of eight day duration, united by five knopped pillars, with anchor escapement and striking the hours on a single bell, with strike / strike silent facil...
