Description

A quality Victorian silver mounted spirit flask with clear hallmarks for Birmingham 1881 and makers mark for John Linegar. The base or cup is also hallmarked with Queen Victoria's head. The silver top is hallmarked as well. The glass flask is most elegantly cut with long chamfered panels and a diamond pattern around the shoulder. The silver base or cup is smooth plain silver with slightly raised rims, and gilt lined inside. The screw top has a Cork stopper. The flask is in beautiful condition.
