Description

A stunning example of 19th-century Italian craftsmanship, this wall mirror is attributed to the master gilders of Bologna. The frame features a sophisticated shaped profile with distinctive concave "notched" corners, typical of the refined regional style. The giltwood finish has aged beautifully, revealing a deep, warm luster and a fine network of authentic craquelure that highlights its antique heritage. With its architectural presence and elegant proportions, this mirror serves as a luminous focal point, blending the boldness of Italian design with a delicate, time-honored patina.
