Description

This classic Edwardian-era easy chair offers a timeless silhouette, combining superior comfort with quintessentially British sporting charm. Built on a sturdy frame with traditionally scrolled arms and a deep, supportive seat, it sits on elegant tapered mahogany legs finished with original brass castors for effortless movement. The chair has been masterfully upholstered in a striking equestrian-themed fabric, featuring detailed vignettes of jockeys and racing scenes that evoke the spirit of the English countryside. Perfectly proportioned for a study, library, or fireside nook, this piece captures the relaxed elegance of early 20th-century leisure.
