Description

An exceptional pair of Victorian armchairs with a classic "English Country House" aesthetic. The chairs are upholstered in a vintage crewelwork featuring a hand-stitched trailing vine and floral pattern. While not new, the fabric is remarkably well-preserved. There is some light fading in areas, this appears as subtle stripes, it is worth noting that it is far less prominent in person than it is in the photographs. Both chairs have been fitted with replacement castors at some point—one chair with a modern set and the other with period-appropriate antique castors. Seat Height 38cm.
