Description

This is a very finely decorated Meiji Period (1868-1912) Satsuma vase from the highly regarded Kinkozan studios in Kyoto. The main illustration is a pair of geese in a lakeland scene surrounded by trees and flowers including morning glory, maples in autumn colour and pines. The base of the vase is very finely gilded with flowers and ginko leaves and the neck and shoulders with chrysanthemum flowers. The detail in this beautiful vase is very fine and intricate. Signed clearly to base. WE ARE LEAVING SELLING ANTIQUES. PLEASE MAKE YOUR OFFERS BEFORE 19TH MAY. Condition: Excellent Some slight rubbing to gilding as may be expected but almost as new. Buy now by emailing taishofineart@gmail.com for bank details. We pay carriage, packing and insurance with UK.
