Description

A charming Victorian black-lacquered pine cabinet decorated with beautifully hand-painted floral panels framed by gilt borders. The piece shows an appealing aged patina and opens to reveal three practical interior shelves, making it as functional as it is decorative. Standing on attractive turned feet. Its distinctive painted surfaces and compact proportions give it a unique presence, ideal for adding character to any room. Wear consistent with age and use, including chips and scratches to the surface that in our opinion add to its charm!
