Description

-Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- A fine quality George III inlaid fiddleback mahogany serpentine chest-of-drawers. c1790. Fiddleback mahogany also called tiger-stripe, with its distinctive striping and shimmering contrasting colours. Having developed a wonderful rich colour and patina. An arrangement of three short drawers to the top, over three long graduating drawers. Inlaid parquetry chequered design to the top, each drawer with cross-banded edge, and inlaid stringing to drawer centres. Showing excellent quality and craftsmanship. All drawers opening smoothly and easily. All escutcheons and original locks are present. With replacement brass swan-neck handles, age and stylistically correct. Stunning fiddleback figuring and rich warm colour to the mahogany. Shaped apron, standing on splayed feet. In excellent antique condition, some minor historic repairs to veneers. Very solid, strong and sturdy. The dimensions are taken at highest, widest and deepest points. Height-105.5cm. Width-117cm. Depth-58cm. VIEWING.
