Description

A good example of a large Sterling Silver milk or cream jug. The round body has elegant gadrooned detail and it stands on four lions paw feet. It has an elegant scrolling handle, a wide pouring spout and a bright gilded interior. The jug is stylish and good quality and it weighs approximately 295g. It is hallmarked for London, 1812 and the maker Solomon Houghton. It is in very good condition for its age. There are some faint surface marks and minor dinks and signs of age and use but nothing detrimental and it displays well. The gilt interior is still very bright. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
