Description

A good example of a mahogany hanger dating from the late 19th Century, used by Barristers to hang their gowns and wigs. It is a good quality piece with elegant turnings and a brass hook. It is in good condition with no major damages and a lovely patina. It has been lightly cleaned and is certainly a usable piece as well as a lovely decorative object. Approximate Measurements : Length : 21" / 53cm Width : 13 3/4" / 35cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
