Description

Antique 20th century Jacobean style bureau in oak, a very well-made and fine-quality piece. The upper section features a nicely fitted interior with a brown leather writing surface, perfect for both practical use and display. Below, the bureau has three large drawers, each adorned with beautiful mouldings and retaining their original brass dropper handles. The piece stands on barley twist legs with a supporting stretcher, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship. Gorgeous grain and rich colour run throughout, highlighting the quality of the oak and the detailed Jacobean styling. A very nice and desirable example in good condition, this bureau has elegant proportions and fine detailing. Its timeless design, solid construction, and classic appeal make it a perfect addition to any home.
