Description

Antique 20th century dresser base in walnut, a very well made and good quality example with attractive proportions and practical design. The piece features four drawers to the front, all offering useful storage, along with an open shelf to the base for additional display or functionality. Raised on turned legs, the dresser base has a classic and sturdy structure. The walnut displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, further enhanced by tasteful carved decoration to the drawer fronts, adding character and visual interest. A very desirable example, presented in good condition and showcasing solid craftsmanship. This piece would make a perfect addition to any home, combining practicality with timeless style and warmth.
