Description

Antique 20th century small breakfront sideboard in mahogany, a very well-made and good-quality piece. This rare and unique small-sized sideboard features six drawers in total, with four larger drawers running down the centre in ascending size and two small drawers, one on either side, in the upper section. The piece also includes two cupboards, one on each side, each fitted with a key and containing a single shelf inside. It retains its original decorative handles and stands on elegant stud and bracket feet. The sideboard showcases gorgeous mahogany grain, beautiful figuring, and cross-banded edges, reflecting fine craftsmanship throughout. A very nice and desirable example, this sideboard has to be seen in person to be truly appreciated. Its compact size, quality construction, and timeless design make it a perfect addition to any home.
