Description

Large Victorian Mahogany Library Bookcase – Antique Glazed Display Cabinet with Adjustable Shelving. A substantial and highly impressive Victorian mahogany library bookcase, embodying the grandeur and craftsmanship of 19th-century English furniture. Raised upon a solid plinth base, the lower section features a pair of paneled doors with elegant arched detailing, opening to reveal generous internal shelving ideal for storage. The doors are flanked by finely carved corbels, adding depth and architectural interest. The upper section is fitted with glazed doors, allowing for display while protecting contents within. Inside, adjustable shelving provides flexibility for books or decorative pieces. Matching carved corbels frame the upper doors, creating a cohesive and striking design. The bookcase is crowned with a shaped cornice, completing its classic Victorian silhouette. Presented in two sections, it allows for ease of transport and installation without compromising its impressive scale. The rich mahogany showcases a deep, warm tone with a beautiful patina, making this piece equally suited to a traditional library, study, or refined interior setting. Presented in good c...
