Description

Antique 19th century Victorian rosewood armchair, very well made and of the finest quality. The chair features a beautifully shaped frame, heavily carved with intricate and highly detailed designs, and stands on elegant cabriole legs. It is upholstered in a patterned fabric and comes complete with a matching pillow, offering both comfort and style. The rosewood displays a gorgeous grain and rich colour, highlighting the excellent craftsmanship. A very desirable and rare example, combining elegance, comfort, and superior design. Perfect as a statement piece or for practical use in any home. Condition is good for its age, with general age-related wear, but overall it presents exceptionally well. A stunning example of Victorian furniture, ideal for collectors or as a distinguished addition to any interior.
