Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian small cabinet in golden oak, very well made and of good quality. The cabinet features a single drawer to the upper section and a double-door cupboard at the base, all retaining their original brass handles. It stands on square legs with tapered feet and has a raised gallery to the top, showcasing a classic Edwardian design. The golden oak displays a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout. A very nice and desirable example, with a narrow design that makes it versatile for any space. Solidly constructed, well made, and in good condition, this cabinet is both practical and elegant. Perfect as a storage piece or decorative addition to any home.
