Description

Grand Victorian Mahogany Wind-out Dining Table. A fine and elegant Victorian Mahogany Wind-Out dining table Circa 1860 . We bring to you a marvellous example of an early Victorian solid mahogany wind-out table of substantial size, believed to be made around circa 1860 . In almost pristine condition, it has been sympathetically restored to preserve every bit of its historical integrity. The table possesses that idyllic, lightly faded honey mahogany tone throughout, boasting a deep, glazed lustre. The entire piece has been traditionally French polished by a master polisher in the past; since then, the finish has mellowed and very lightly faded, giving it a beautifully authentic look that is nearly impossible to distinguish from a well-cared-for original surface. Its wonderful state is largely thanks to the bespoke, three-piece thick table protector included. This high-quality accessory features a burl wood effect vinyl top for easy cleaning and a soft, felt-like underside to cushion the wood, folding away neatly when you want to show off the grain. Supporting the top are four substantial legs, expertly turned with an elegant octagonal profile that gives the piece a sophis...
