Description

Antique 20th century sideboard in oak, a very well-made and good-quality piece. The sideboard features three drawers in the upper section and two cupboards at the base, with a two-door cupboard to the left and a single-door cupboard to the right, all fitted with their original handles and fittings. It stands on sturdy square legs and is beautifully carved to the front, with a small raised gallery to the top adding a refined decorative touch. The piece showcases gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout, reflecting excellent craftsmanship. In good condition, this is a very desirable example and a perfect addition to any home, combining timeless design, practicality, and classic appeal.
