Description

This dresser base is in good condition. It is in its totally original paint. It has been restored to a high standard in Hungary. It has been then rubbed over so it's clean and then rubbed over giving it a stunning patina. The top has been stripped so it contrasts beautifully with the paintwork. This dresser base would look well in a property in any room amongst similar antique pine furniture. It would look great in an unfitted kitchen or a hallway. This dresser base stands on square back legs and round turned front bun feet supporting the main section. There are two large doors. The doors have one oval panel. There are fluted columns and carved corbels to the sides. There is a key that locks the door. Behind the door there is a shelf. Above the doors is one large drawer. The drawer has a lovely moulding around the edge and ceramic handles. The drawer has dovetail joints and is pine lined. The top is beautifully waxed. The height is 101cm, the width is 101cm and the depth is 49cm.
