Description

Antique 19th century Victorian set of four oak dining chairs, very well-made and of good quality. Each chair features red overstuffed seats with a beautiful patterned fabric, providing both comfort and style. The chairs stand on turned legs and have nicely carved backs, showcasing gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout. The design is simple yet elegant, reflecting classic Victorian craftsmanship. In good condition with solid joints and no wobbles, this set is very well-made, comfortable, and highly desirable. A perfect addition to any home, combining timeless style, practicality, and understated elegance.
