Description

An exceptional antique Anglo-Indian carved corner cabinet dating to the late 19th century. This highly decorative piece showcases extraordinary hand-carved detail throughout, featuring intricate foliate carvings, mythological creatures, and finely carved figural supports. The striking upper section is crowned with a dramatic temple-style pediment, reflecting the influence of traditional Indian architecture combined with Victorian design. Designed as a statement corner cabinet or display piece, it offers tiered shelving ideal for showcasing decorative objects, sculptures, or antiques. The bold sculptural form and craftsmanship make it a true focal point in any interior. Anglo-Indian furniture is increasingly sought after for its exotic craftsmanship, historical significance, and investment appeal, making this a standout example. Perfect for collectors, interior designers, or those seeking a unique antique carved cabinet, Indian corner cabinet, or statement display piece. Dimensions: Height 204cm x Width 80cm x Depth 54cm
