Description

A George III flame mahogany & satinwood bow-fronted chest of particularly fine colour and patina. Raised on splay feet with a shaped apron and above are three long drawers with butterfly matched flame mahogany fronts and original brass ring handles and locks. The drawers and brushing slide are surrounded by satinwood faced rails giving an unusual and attractive contrast. The top has a molded edge and is in one piece and well figured. The whole is in lovely original condition. 920mm high, 1090mm wide and 610mm deep. English. Circa 1810.
