Description

A Fine Chinese Coral-Orange Ground 'Famille Rose' 'Wan Shou Wu Jiang Dish Guangxu Mark and of the Period (1875-1908) Circa 1890 - 1900 A vibrant and exquisitely decorated porcelain dish featuring the auspicious 'Wan Shou Wu Jiang' (Boundless Longevity) pattern. The interior is finished in a saturated coral-orange ground, decorated with four gilded medallions containing the characters Wan, Shou, Wu, and Jiang. These surround a central stylized Shou (longevity) medallion, all set against a dense lotus scroll in a famille rose palette. The Reverse: Decorated with three finely painted floral sprays in underglaze blue and enamels. The Base: Bears a crisp, six-character mark in underglaze blue: "Da Qing Guangxu Nian Zhi." Condition Report: Physical: Good condition; no chips, no cracks, and no repairs. Resonance: The dish is highly sonorous with a clear, high-pitched ring when tapped. UV Light: Inspected and verified clean under UV light, confirming no hidden restoration or overpainting. Diameter: 21 cm. Provenance: Retains an original collector's label to the base: "The G.S. May Esquire Private Collection, London" (Reference No. 615). Historical Significance: The Emp...
