Description

Rare Japanese Cloisonne Medium Plate - Landscape. Nagoya. Circa 1900. Fine execution of cloisonne wiring techniques, with realistic depiction of Japanese life, nature and culture. The execution of detail is exquisite with rendition of villages within an overall landscape with the sun setting. Adorned with foliage, flowers and a bird, and the natural withering of a plant. The wirework simulating natural form, with a multitude of cloisonne enamel colours. Bordered with mosaics of geometrical shapes, flowers, simulated blossom and grasses. Superb wirework and enamelling techniques. Most likely made by the Nagoya Cloisonné Company. Highly skilled artistry. Unsigned. In the style and craftsmanship of Namikawa Yasuyuki workshop (Nagoya).* Condition: Excellent condition with minor hairlines (see photos). There are two distinct qualities or types expressed in Japanese art: one suggesting endless patience in the execution of minute detail, the other denoting a momentary conception of some fleeting idea carried out with boldness and freedom of expression in form and line – profuse complexity and extreme simplicity. The work on Japanese cloisonné were generally exhibits the qual...
