Description

A spectacular late Victorian-era fringe necklace set with dozens of fantastic deep red garnets arranged in daisy-cluster style. The garnets are mounted into "garnet gold" - a description used to describe a very low carat gold typically used in Victorian garnet jewellery. SIZE: Approximately 16 inches long. Each garnet flower measures approx 1cm across. The drop at the front is 3.7cm. WEIGHT: 27.3g. MATERIALS: Garnet, garnet gold. HALLMARKS/STAMPS: None. CONDITION: The necklace is in excellent antique condition with a secure concealed clasp. Three of the garnets toward the back are vacant (see photos) but it's very difficult to spot. ERA: Estimated late Victorian (c.late 1800s-1900s).
