Description

This quality antique band is modelled in 9ct yellow Gold, complete with an opening heart padlock drop, fully hallmarked for Birmingham 1916. Padlocks first became popular during the Victorian period, worn by women whose significant others were leaving for an extended period. The significance was that the padlock would be locked onto the woman, and only her beloved would have the key- he would then open it upon his return. Mainly popular on bracelets, padlock rings are much scarcer and more collectable. Imagine the joy on your loved one's face when they receive this rare, beautifully crafted ring. It's not just a piece of jewellery, it's a symbol of your love and thoughtfulness. METAL 9ct Yellow Gold RING SIZE UK - V 1/2 / US - 10.75 MEASUREMENTS The band measures 4.53mm wide The padlock measures 1.4cm x 1.0cm WEIGHT 3.25 grams HALLMARKS Birmingham, 9, 375, Date letter R (1916) CONDITION This unusual heart padlock remains in very good condition. The band is a lovely yellow gold, with just some light surface wear to the patterned engraving from age. The heart padlock is in great condition, too, and the band features a full set of hallmarks.
