Description

A magnificent and rare fully restored antique Art Deco silver plate meat serving cart, by Drakes of Brewer Street, London, circa 1930 in date. Serve your roast beef in style!! This stunning trolley is suitable for serving cooked meats such as roast beef, lamb, and turkey. It features a vented silver plated locking retractable revolving dome which opens to a detachable well and water tank over a spirit burner. The trolley has as an aluminium carving board for meat, this can be removed to reveal a silver plated fitted salver for serving meat and fish. It has a vented screw knob for filling the tank with water and for steam to escape. The sides are fitted with handles and a detachable plate holder, set upon an oval cabriole leg base. The center shelf is fitted with an oval silver plated utensil tray mounted on four rubberized wheels along with original castors. This superb piece was crafted by perhaps London's finest silversmith of the time, Drakes Silversmiths of Brewer Street, London W1. It is a Drakes model MINI, No: 1729, one of the most desirable models that they made, with the revolving dome which makes it very easy to use. This truly exceptional piece is ...
